

3rd Workshop on legislative xml

6 – 8 April 2005, Furore Inn, Furore (Costa d'Amalfi)

ProgrammeWednesday 6, April 2005

13.00-14.15	Lunch
I. Upgrade of ongoing projects since Koebek Strand and new presentations
14.30-15.00	Normeinrete and e-leges Ms Caterina Lupo, Centro Nazionale per l'Informatica nella Pubblica Amministrazione (CNIPA), Italy
15.00-15.30	Lex Dania since Kobaek Mr Knud Erik Petersen, Folketing, Denmark
15.30-15.45	Coffee break
15.45-16.15	Upgrade of the project CHLexML since Koebek Strand Mr Urs Paul Holenstein, Office federal de la justice, service Copiur, Switzerland
16.15-16.45	Legislative XML in the Irish Parliament – our reasons and our experience Ms Patricia Doran, Public Bills Office Office of the Houses of the Oireachtas, Leinster House, Ireland
16.45-17.15	Legal xml/metalex issues in the Netherlands and European (FP6) initiatives Mr Radboud Winkels, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
20.30	Dinner

Thursday 7, April 2005

II. Data and time management: a new attempt to agree on common definitions and vocabulary
09.00-9.30	Time model for managing law in force in a normative system perspective Ms Monica Palmirani, Research Centre of History of Law, Philosophy and Sociology of Law and Computer Science and Law (CIRSFID), University of Bologna, Italy
III. Focus on ongoing projects' standards definitions relevant peculiarities
9.30-10.00	Schema CHLeXML Mr Hubert Müntst, Datafactory AG, Switzerland
10.00-10.30	Lex Dania Schema Development Mr Ole Lianee, CSC Denmark, Denmark
10.30-10.45	Coffee break
10.45-11.15	Genericity and flexibility in the NIR schema Mr Fabio Vitali, Department of Computer Science, University of Bologna, Italy
11.15-11.45	Towards self explaining texts through analytical metadata Mr Carlo Biagioli, Istituto di Teoria e Tecniche dell'Informazione Giuridica (ITTIG), Italy
IV. Presentations of tools (editors, resolution systems, search, categorization, knowledge extraction)
11.45-12.15	Presentation of a case of consolidation with Norma-System using DTD v. 2 Ms Monica Palmirani, Research Centre of History of Law, Philosophy and Sociology of Law and Computer Science and Law (CIRSFID), University of Bologna, Italy
12.15-12.45	NREditor developments: support for planning a new bill Mr Enrico Francesconi, Istituto di Teoria e Tecniche dell'Informazione Giuridica (ITTIG), Italy
13.00-14.15	Lunch
V. Law's production processes / systems interoperability
14.30-15.00	Including XML in the central production system of Retsinformation Mr Søren Broberg Nielsen, Civil Affairs, Legal Information Division, Denmark
15.00-15.30	Enabling service oriented architecture in Danish eGovernment Mr Rene Løhde, Danish Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation, Denmark
15.30-15.45	Coffee break
15.45-16.15	Legal standards in the spatial domain and representation of norms Mr Alexander Boer, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
16.15-16.45	The X-Leges System for Legislative Document Exchange Mr Massimo Mecella, Dipartimento di Informatica e Sistemistica – Università di Roma La Sapienza, Italy
16.45-17.15	Strengthening Parliaments' Information Systems in Africa Mr Robert Kenny, Propylon, Ireland
20.30	Dinner

Friday 8, April 2005

VI. Metadata (concerning documents and semantics) and ontologies
09.30-10.00	Extension and internationalisation of Italian URNs scheme Mr Pier Luigi Spinosa, Istituto di teoria e tecniche dell'informazione giuridica (ITTIG) – Italian National Research Council (CNR), Italy
10.00-10.30	Ontology for modelling the knowledge in the norms Ms Monica Palmirani, Ms Raffaella Brighi, Research Centre of History of Law, Philosophy and Sociology of Law and Computer Science and Law (CIRSFID), University of Bologna, Italy
10.30-10.45	Coffee break
10.45-11.15	Metadata in Lex Dania XML Mr Benny Høyer, Folketinget, Denmark
11.15-11.45	LOIS: a multilingual semantic lexicon Ms Daniela Tiscornia, Istituto di Teoria e Tecniche dell'Informazione Giuridica (ITTIG), Italy
11.45-12.15	Discussion
	Conclusion Ms Caterina Lupo, Centro Nazionale per l'Informatica nella Pubblica Amministrazione (CNIPA), Italy